13. Risk statement

- 13.1 RRS 3 states: 'The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue to race is hers alone.' By participating in this event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that sailing is a potentially dangerous activity with inherent risks. These risks include strong winds and rough seas, sudden changes in weather, failure of equipment, boat handling errors, poor seamanship by other boats, loss of balance on an unstable platform and fatigue resulting in increased risk of injury. Inherent in the sport of sailing is the risk of permanent, catastrophic injury or death by drowning, trauma, hypothermia or other causes.

14. Insurance

- 14.1 [DP][NP] Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with minimum cover of $5,000,000 per incident or the equivalent. A certificate of insurance is to be provided if required by the Organising Authority.

15. Prizes

- 15.1 The Ross Telford Memorial Trophy will be awarded to the 2022 Port Nicholson Regatta champion. The regatta champion will be determined by the Organising Authority based primarily on performance (including the competitiveness of each division and scoring method), along with sportsmanship and contribution to the success of the regatta. A more complete description of the Organising Authority's approach will be published at www.portnicholsonregatta.org.nz.
